

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Shaw

Harmony

You have really persevered with maths tasks this week. I am proud of how hard you have tried and all the effort you have put in, even when you find it challenging.

Roald Dahl - Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Jack

For trying really hard this week to address adults using their name, asking your questions correctly and for saying your assembly line so clearly and independently. Well done Jack!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Charlie

For his resilience this week in school. Charlie has really tried his best this week to be independent and to be proactive. He even had a great swimming lesson where he impressed everyone with his can do attitude.

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Eesa

At the start of the week we were working on rounding numbers, Eesa was finding it difficult at first but has persevered and is now tackling rounding problems independently! Great work Eesa!

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood

Amelia

For being a super supportive member of the class this week! Amelia has tried her best and supported her peers in subjects they have found tricky.

What a kind member of the class! Well done Amelia.

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Jaxson

Jaxson has shown great determination in maths this week and particularly enjoyed finding factors of a number. He worked very hard to be independent and proactive, well done Jaxson!

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Patience

Patience has done some excellent, independent work in English (a newspaper report). She has been very enthusiastic about the work - starting it without prompting. Well done Patience.

Vivaldi - Mr George

Issac

For representing the school wonderfully at our recent frisbee festival. He showed great teamwork, determination and sportsmanship throughout, which made the adults very proud - well done.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Logan

For being a super Titus Salt in the Roald Dahl assembly yesterday!
