

Year 3

Anne Fine

Ciara

Ciara, you have a super attitude towards school life! You are helpful, kind and always try your best. I have enjoyed reading your English work this week particularly your postcard from Ottoline. Well done!

Roald Dahl

Amelia-Rose

For her great postcard writing in English yesterday. Amelia completed her task independently without needing reminders. She wrote some lovely sentences and tried hard to remember the Year 3 writing features. Well done Amelia!

Year 4

JKR

Teddy

For his enthusiasm and excitement in geography and science this week.

Teddy has contributed some great answers to class discussions in these subjects this week and has shown great subject knowledge in our topics.

Michael Morpurgo

Neo

For making a real effort with his handwriting. Not only did he recently achieve his golden pencil, but his letters are now so beautifully joined that he is quickly working towards his pen! You have listened to the advice given and shown Mrs Taylor how good your writing can be when you try your best - keep it up Neo!

Year 5

Elgar

Millen

For excellent effort in maths this week where we have been continuing our work with fractions and finding quantities of amount. Well done Millen and keep it up!

Mozart

Oliver

He's tried really hard to be proactive with his learning and he's shown a lot more enthusiasm with his work. Keep it up Oliver!

Year 6

Beethoven

Devin

For a fantastic attitude towards his SATs revision this week and fantastic bowling and fielding during rounders.

Vivaldi

Abaan

For your continued effort in our arithmetic lessons. You have shown that your maths skills are outstanding and you are great role model!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mollie

For consistent, fantastic behaviour. Mollie always makes the right choices and is a fantastic role model to her peers.
