Faith

For trying her best during guided reading yesterday! Faith was a little bit reluctant to engage at first, but once we opened the page and started reading and talking about the story, she was keen to give her predictions and did some fantastic blending! Well done Faith for not giving up!

Willow

Owen

For starting to step out of his comfort zone and try new things. It has been fantastic to see you become more comfortable and confident in your surroundings and feel safe enough to engage in something you haven't done before! Well Done Owen.

Year 1 Kandinsky

Finley

Finley has been able to play the C and D note successfully on the glockenspiel. When it was not his turn to play, he reminded his partner what note to play. Well done Finley!

Matisse

Harley

Harley has been trying so hard with his phonics this half term. He is taking his time to think of sounds in words when blending and has come to his phonics booster sessions with so much enthusiasm. Well done Harley!

Year 2

Lowry

Theo

For a fantastic attitude all week, being proactive and always been helpful and kind in the classroom. Well Done Theo!

Van Gogh

Aleya

Aleyah has been working really hard. She contributes in all lessons and puts her hand up as much as she can. It is so nice to see her so engaged in lessons.

Year 3

Anne Fine

Harry

Harry, you have had an excellent attitude to your learning recently. Keep working hard, I am proud of you!

Roald Dahl

Hashir

Hashir's behaviour, work and attitude have been exemplary all half term, especially this particular week. He has made tremendous effort with all that he has been asked to do and has been an excellent role-model for his peers. Well done Hashir and Keep up this good work.

Year 4

JK Rowling

Suraiya

Suraiya has shown remarkable perseverance in DT, especially while designing and making her structures. She kept going even when things were challenging and demonstrated real resilience and creativity. Alongside this, she continues to impress us with her excellent attitude to learning, always giving her best, listening carefully, and approaching every task with enthusiasm.

We are incredibly proud of you, Suraiya—well done!

Michael Morpurgo

Kimberly

For her amazing engineering and perseverance skills in our DT lesson this week! Your framework made of spaghetti sticks and marshmallows was super!

Year 5

Elgar

Michael

For a fantastic attitude and effort in English this week enabling Michael to produce a brilliant short story based on the picture book "The viewer". Michael included a detailed setting description, a powerful character description and an engaging problem to solve and resolution. He also really thought about his vocabulary choices and included lots of writing features he has been working on this term. Well done Michael!

Mozart

Riccardo

We are very proud of Riccardo this week for some amazing writing! Riccardo used all of his non-negotiables in his story and included some great writing features! Keep up the good work Riccardo!

Year 6

Beethoven

Bonney Jayne

Bonney has really impressed us with her efforts in maths today. She has tried her best and persevered even when she has found things tricky.

Vivaldi

Sumaiya

For her writing this week in English. You have written an amazingly engaging set of instructions on how to kill a minotaur. Your vocabulary was outstanding and it even had great humour.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

KS1-Isabel

For being so excited to show everyone how she had written her name for the first time. She even did it three times! Well done Isabel.

KS2-Ashley

For being so polite whenever we see you around school. Well done Ashley!
