

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Dearden

Stanley

For his really positive attitude towards the gardening session we took part in this week. He worked hard to rake the soil and make it a good environment for seeds to grow. He then helped to plant some carrot seeds and edible flowers!

Roald Dahl - Mrs Habbergham & Mrs Taylor

Alayna

For her super attitude towards every aspect of learning. She is self-motivated to achieve all of her personal targets and makes sure every piece of work is her very best.

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent Hasnain

For being extremely determined with his reading. Hasnain has just received a new reading target and is making a great start at achieving it. He is always wanting to pick up his book which is great to see, keep it up and no doubt you will achieve your targets!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes Thomas

For his impressive geographical knowledge. On our theme day this week Thomas worked really well with maps and was able to explain in detail why people may or may not choose to live next to a volcano! I can tell he is really going to enjoy our theme extreme earth.

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood
Ibrahim

For an incredible improvement to his attitude in learning this week. Ibrahim has returned after the Easter holidays with a new and improved, proactive attitude. Well done Ibrahim!
Keep it up!

Mozart – Miss Brow
Riley

For being such an incredibly thoughtful boy! Riley brought the class a map for our 'Let's explore planet earth' theme. As a class, we can scratch off all of the countries we have visited! Thank you Riley!

Year 6

Beethoven- Mrs White

Maria

For excellent effort at swimming this week - she can now swim without arm bands! Keep going Maria!

Vivaldi- Mr George

Aimee

For her incredible progress and accomplishments in her swimming lessons recently. This week she has achieved her award for swimming 25m, not only using front crawl, but backstroke too! We are really proud of you - well done!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Richardson, Miss Broomfield and Mrs Pugh

Nancy-Faye

For her fantastic explanation and understanding of words in lessons. Nancy gave an amazing explanation of the word “consequence”, what it meant and how it is used, our visitor in school was really impressed!
