

Year 3

Anne Fine

Myla

Myla, I have been so impressed with your learning recently. You are always ready to learn and try your best. You are working hard to improve your handwriting and you have shared some great ideas for writing this week.

Roald Dahl

Haniah

For her outstanding effort in all her learning and work this week. You are a role model to the rest of the class and should be proud of yourself. Well done!

Year 4

JKR

Freya

Freya has made a focused and determined effort to improve both her Maths and English. Her positive attitude and willingness to keep trying, even when things felt challenging, have really stood out. Freya, your hard work, resilience, and enthusiasm for learning are truly impressive.

Well done—keep shining!

Michael Morpurgo

Aliza

For her fantastic portrayal of Michael Morpurgo in our class assembly yesterday. Your confident acting skills are amazing and you stayed in role the whole time - well done!

Year 5

Elgar

Jorgie

For a fantastic attitude towards all of her learning this week, Jorgie has really challenged herself and produced some fantastic pieces of work. Well done Jorgie!

Mozart

Khateeba

For persevering even when she had a poorly foot. She did not let this stop her from coming into school, trying her best and even coming on our school trip!

Year 6

Beethoven

Aala

For an excellent attitude towards her assessments this week! Aala has had such a positive attitude and we are so proud of her!

Vivaldi

Bobbie

For her amazing abstract artwork in RE this week. You used a range of resources to depict a special journey that some Muslims would take. It blew us all away!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Omid

For being such a polite and kind member of our school. Omid always has a smile on his face when we see him around school.
