

Year 3

Anne Fine

Isabella

You have had a super first week back at school. You have been engaged and ready to learn and I have been really impressed with your effort in English and maths lessons.

Roald Dahl

Elissia

For always having such a positive attitude to school life and for great effort in all lessons. Well done Elissia!

Year 4

JK Rowling

Joey

For great effort in his times tables. Joey has been working extremely hard on TT Rockstars and on our class times table work. Keep up the hard work Joey!

J Wilson

Samantha

For always coming to school with a huge smile on her face, having a proactive enthusiasm to her learning and being a genuine friend to others.

Year 5

Elgar

Hayley

For fantastic effort in maths this week learning converting fractions to decimals. Haley has had a brilliant attitude towards here learning and done really well with the tasks. Well done Hayley!

Mozart

Leon

For his hard work and perseverance when writing persuasive sentences about deforestation. At first, Leon found it hard to include adverbs and adjectives in his sentences but he worked hard and produced some effective persuasive sentences. Well done, Leon.

Year 6

Beethoven

Harvey

For working really hard this week to plan his own holiday, Harvey has now worked out the costings for his hotel and food and found some activities he would like to do and calculated the total cost in pounds and also the local currency.

Vivaldi

Hareem

This week, Hareem has completed two research projects marvellously. She has planned an exciting holiday to Saudi Arabia and researched an axolotl for her non-chronological report in English - I can't wait to read it.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Ava

For working really hard on building your independence- we have all noticed a change in your confidence- we have loved chatting with you about the work you have been doing with Mrs Littlewood!
