November-December 2025 Autumn Term 2

Theme

This half term our theme is Celebrating Us and Our World

We are excited to introduce our new topic "Celebrating Us and Our World", where we will explore various celebrations that bring us together! As part of our learning journey, we will discuss Bonfire Night, focusing on the importance of safety while enjoying fireworks and bonfires. We will celebrate each child's birthday in class, making them feel special and fostering a sense of community.

As we approach the festive season, we will also learn about the ways people around the world celebrate this joyful occasion. Throughout discussions and activities, we aim to create a rich understanding of how celebrations shape our lives and cultures.

We would love you to send us a picture of you celebrating a special day together

Prime Areas

This half-term, we are focusing on the prime areas of learning, which includes personal, social, and emotional development. Through engaging activities like playing with peers, sharing toys, and participating in-group songs, your child will enhance their social skills and emotional understanding. We also encourage language development through storytelling and interactive play, helping them express their feelings and thoughts. Additionally, we provide plenty of opportunities for physical activities, such as climbing, jumping and dancing, which supports their physical growth and coordination. We are excited to watch your child flourish in these key areas of development.
