

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Shaw

Amelia

You have worked so hard in our English lessons this week. You have persevered, even when it has been challenging. I have enjoyed reading your Ottoline story!

Roald Dahl - Mrs Oswald & Miss Broad

Hollie

Hollie, we are so proud of how you have grown in confidence, perseverance and determination this half term. You have pushed yourself, and constantly check your targets and next steps, to make sure you work on them during every piece of work. This has secured lovely progress in your work and is a pleasure to see. Well Done!

Year 4

JKR - Mr Hogg
Sophie

Sophie, you have been fantastic at adding and subtracting fractions! Your hard work and dedication in maths throughout the whole year have truly paid off. You should be incredibly proud of the remarkable progress you've made – your determination and positive attitude have really shone through. Keep up the brilliant work!

Michael Morpurgo - Mrs Taylor

Freddie

For being a polite and friendly member of the class. Freddie, you treat others with kindness and every conversation I've had with you has always been so polite and respectful. What a lovely young man!

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood

Amelia

For producing some fantastic work during our DT day. She created a thoughtful packaging design and a detailed bolognaise recipe. Amelia has also been more focused in lessons this week. Keep it up!

Mozart – Miss Bailes

Yusuf

For being extremely helpful and knowledgeable during our DT day this week. Yusuf showed excellent culinary skills whilst frying the onions and garlic. He was also the first person to offer to wash up and was the last one to leave the food tech room ensuring that the space was tidy and clean!

Year 6

Beethoven - Miss Brow

Iylah

For such a positive attitude towards her learning. She always has a smile on her face and really makes us laugh! Well done Iylah.

Vivaldi - Mr George

Alyssia

For her fantastic maths work this week! We have been beginning to plan a family summer holiday. Alyssia created a wonderful climate graph about her chosen destination - it looked great!

Headteacher and
Deputy Headteacher
Mrs Pugh & Miss Broomfield

Michael

For his effort at Park Run last Sunday, Michael showed great resilience around the track and was proud of himself when he had completed it! He has even said he is going to do it again, we hope you do Michael. Well done!
