

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

Veronica

For trying really hard to make your handwriting smaller. I am really proud of your effort, your writing is looking lovely!

Roald Dahl – Mrs Gawthorpe , Mrs Taylor and Miss Light

Frazer

For coming into school so well every day this week, some fantastic singing in singing assembly and trying his best in all other lessons too!
Well done Frazer!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Logan

For working really hard on his times tables. Logan has been working on chanting his times tables and has improved his accuracy of answering questions. Keep up the great work Logan!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Christopher

For an excellent book he has written at home. For the past few weeks, Christopher has kept JK Rowling class enthralled with a story he has been writing. Yesterday on world book day his story came to an end and it was brilliant! He will definitely be an author one day.

Year 5

Elgar - Mr Gibbs

Essa

For working extremely hard in all lessons and being a really good role model to his peers.

Mozart - Miss Burnham

Laycee

Laycee has worked extremely hard this week in maths. She has shown true determination and perseverance when working out tricky fraction questions! Keep it up Laycee, well done!

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Hannah

Hannah has worked extremely hard this week in our maths lessons. Even though algebra seemed scary to begin with, she has persevered and can now form expressions and find the value of missing numbers. Well done Hannah!

Vivaldi - Mr George

Leo

Leo has worked so hard on his presentation recently and it is showing as his books now look beautiful! You also continue to be an amazing role model for the rest with your awesome attitude towards your learning.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Ibrahim

We are so impressed with your beautiful drawing Ibrahim and loved seeing how proud of it you are.

Keep it up- you are an artist in the making 😊
