

Year 3
Anne Fine

Esa

You are always so engaged in our maths lessons, ready to give answers and able to justify your reasoning. Well done for all your hard work!

Roald Dahl

Amsal

For her fantastic singing and dancing at the Big Sing. She gave it her all and really enjoyed taking part.

Year 4

JKR

Isla

For persevering in maths with column subtraction. She has not only managed to master exchanging and regrouping, she is now helping others who are struggling. Well done, Isla.

Michael Morpurgo

Adelaie

For making a real effort to improve your handwriting this half term. You have been thinking carefully about the size of your letters and how to join them. Your writing is now beautifully joined and you are not far off achieving your pen! Keep it up Adelaie.

Year 5

Elgar

Farhan

For a great attitude towards his learning, especially Maths! Farhan tries his best every day.

Mozart

Roman

For always trying his best in everything he does. Roman puts 100% into every piece of work he does and sets a great example to the rest of the class. Everyday, Roman comes into school with a smile on his face, ready to learn and willing to help out his peers.

Well done Roman.

Year 6

Beethoven

Sienna

For writing a fantastic setting description of Whitby Abbey. Sienna blew me away with her vocabulary choices and the way she expertly incorporated Year 5 and 6 writing features. I was hooked and wanted to read more! Well done Sienna!

Vivaldi

Yan

For working well as part of a team this week. We have reviewed our assessment papers and Yan has worked hard to review her answers but then help others with their answers too! Well done Yan!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Ajwa

For her fantastic writing since she has started in Year 5.
Her handwriting is beautiful and she has worked really hard on her writing target.
