

Year 3
Anne Fine

Amaanah

You have been working hard in our English lessons and have produced some lovely poetry this week. Well done for always working hard and trying your best. Your handwriting is lovely too, great work!

Roald Dahl

Ayat

For her brilliant poem writing this week. She is now joining all her letters and has consistently neat handwriting.
Well done Ayat, keep up the great work!

Year 4

JKR

Eliza

Eliza always shows tremendous effort in class, producing her very best work every single day. This week, however, she has truly amazed everyone with an outstanding piece of creative writing. Her sequel to the Beowulf story was exceptional. Eliza used well-chosen adjectives, fronted adverbials, and relative clauses with real skill, bringing her story vividly to life. Her description of the beast and its lair was filled with wonderfully gruesome and gory detail, captivating the reader from start to finish. Eliza, your creativity shines through in every sentence. A fantastic achievement—well done!

Michael Morpurgo

Myla

For always doing the right thing! Myla you set a good example to everyone around you. You are polite, friendly and always ready to learn. Well done Myla!

Year 5

Elgar

Jannat

For a great attitude towards all of her learning this week and in particular her maths where she has shown great resilience. Jannat also for a fantastic performance in her role as the strict school master in Elgar's class assembly.

Mozart

Noah

For excellent writing this week. Noah has written an amazing setting description this and has planned a great story that he is going to write next week. His ideas are extremely creative and his choice of vocabulary is brilliant. Well done Noah!

Year 6

Beethoven

Ayaan

For a big effort with his handwriting this week. Ayaan has really made an effort to slow down and make sure all of his letters are formed correctly. Well done Ayaan.

Viavaldi

Khalid

For an improved attitude towards his learning. He is showing he is ready to learn with good body language and has tried exceptionally hard with his tasks this week.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Amyrah

You have been amazing learning your times tables and division facts! Keep up the great work and well done!
