

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

AJ

For your amazing enthusiasm and lust for learning this week! I can tell you are really going to enjoy our new theme about the Stone Age.

Roald Dahl – Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Ocean

For reading her book so carefully that she spotted a mistake in the text where a sentence did not make sense! The book has been published with no adult proof readers spotting the error, but Ocean did! Well done Ocean.

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Rosie

Rosie has been a superstar all week with her learning. She has been trying so hard in her maths and English lessons and I am super proud of her. Well done Rosie!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Leah

For having a positive attitude this week in school. Leah always tries her best in her work and all other aspects of school. Her self confidence is growing too which is amazing to see. Keep being you Leah!

Year 5

Elgar – Mr Owen

Essa

For a superb and focused start to 2023, particularly with regards to maths lessons where he has made the choice to tackle new and difficult learning with great determination and enthusiasm.

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Cade

For his perseverance in maths this week. Cade made sure he didn't give up even when he found a particular day more challenging. Well done Cade, keep up the hard work and determination!

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Ayaan

For his fantastic effort in maths this week adding and subtracting unlike fractions! Well done Ayaan, keep up the hard work!

Vivaldi - Mr George

Roisin

You have come back to school after the holidays with an incredible attitude! You are focusing on your presentation and being extremely proactive with your learning - keep it up!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Harmony

Well done to Harmony for being a fantastic role model to everyone in our school. You always have a smile on your face and you are polite to everyone you meet.
