

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Dearden

Connor

For his amazing commitment to reading in school and at home. Connor has passed all of the Year 3 bookshelf books and is keen to read lots from the extra shelf too! Any spare time he has during the day, you will always see him with his head in a book. It is so great to see!

Roald Dahl – Mrs Habbergham & Mrs Taylor

Kaleb

For showing great effort in so many lessons this week. It was lovely to see you leading your group in street dance, trying your best in music and raising your hand to answer so many questions in maths. Keep this up now please, Kaleb!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent Wasee

For his continuous effort in maths, Wasee has a great attitude to learning and always tries his best. Wasee likes to challenge himself and is always looking for ways to improve so that he can reach his targets. Great work Wasee!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes Bilal

Well done Bilal for your amazing effort in your swimming lessons this week, you listened well to the instructions and completed every task – well done and keep going!

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood

Samarpreet

For a fantastic effort in trumpets this week, Samar has impressed me when her knowledge and her intellectual discussions with Miss Varley about her personal experiences of music and the history of musical pieces looked at within the lesson.

Mozart – Miss Brow

Melody

For an amazing effort in her arithmetic lessons! Melody has made excellent progress and her scores have improved so much! Well done Melody!

Year 6

Beethoven- Mrs White

Alfie

For excellent effort in maths this week - you have applied your mathematical knowledge to our 'real-life' maths project. Your perseverance and determination is an example to others. Well done.

Vivaldi- Mr George

Jai

You have been putting 100% effort into your learning this week across the whole curriculum. We are really proud of your determination in our swimming lessons, as well as your enthusiasm in our music and history learning this week. Keep it up Jai!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Richardson, Miss Broomfield and Mrs Pugh

Keagan

Well done to Keagan, you come to school happy and ready to learn every day and greet everyone with a smile on your face.
