

Year 3
Anne Fine

Bentley

Bentley you have really impressed me this week with your answers to some of my questions, especially in history. Your knowledge and understanding of the Stone Age is fantastic!

Roald Dahl

Ismaeel

For always getting on with his work and trying his best. Ismaeel has been working hard to improve his handwriting and we are really impressed with the presentation of his work. Keep it up!

Year 4

JKR

Zara

You have been a wonderful example to the whole class through your hard work, kindness, and positive attitude. You always give your best, and it truly inspires others. We were especially proud of the confidence you showed during our class assembly, you spoke clearly, calmly, and with such enthusiasm. Keep shining brightly!

Michael Morpurgo

Riley

For settling in well to Swain House. After a few weeks with us, you are starting to become more confident and joining in during all lessons. You are always polite and kind to others, making you a great addition to our class. Your attendance is improving now too - keep this up Riley!

Year 5

Elgar

Eesa

For a positive attitude towards all of his learning this week. Eesa always participates well in class discussions. Articulacy sharing his well consider and thoughtful insights on what we are learning. Well done Eesa.

Mozart

Lottie

For always trying her hardest and setting such a good example to her peers in Maths. She is a great friend and always has a smile on her face. Keep it up Lottie

Year 6

Beethoven

Hashir

Hashir has worked so hard in our maths lessons solving tricky ratio problems. Hashir has been able to explain his reasoning and justify his answers. Well done Hashir!

Vivaldi

Ocean

Ocean has done really well in maths this week with converting fractions to decimals. She has also worked very hard at noticing her own errors and correcting these! Well done Ocean!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Minahil

For being such a hard working member of our school. Minahil has worked particularly hard learning her times tables. She is so polite and kind and always has a smile on her face!
