

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Shaw

Amaanah

You are such a kind and thoughtful member of Anne Fine Class. You go above and beyond in our class! Thank you for being so helpful and setting a great example to your classmates.

Roald Dahl - Mrs Oswald & Miss Broad

Adam

This week, on Year 3's educational visit to Whitby, Adam's behaviour was impeccable. He was a role model in representing Swain House Primary School. Well Done Adam!
You also had a lot of fun, especially on the beach!

Year 4

JKR - Mr Hogg

Reggie

Well done to Reggie for trying so hard with your assessments, even though you have not felt your best. We are so please with how you have persevered.

Michael Morpurgo - Mrs Taylor

Aisha

For your fantastic effort with assessments this week. Even in the hot temperatures, you tried your best with every paper. Well done!

Year 5

Elgar - Miss Wood

Teddy

This week, on our trip to St George's Hall Teddy showed exemplary behaviour and kindness to his peers. He has also taken the Year 6 assessments in his stride showing he is more than ready for his next step at Swain House. Well done Teddy!

Mozart - Miss Bailes

Falaknoor

For being resilient in the hot weather and for a great learning week, Falaknoor always tries her best even when faced with challenges! Well done Falaknoor.

Year 6

Beethoven – Miss Brow

Louie

For such a massive effort with our Leaver's Production songs this week. Louie is one of the best in the Year groups for remembering the lyrics and performing the songs. Well done Louie!

Vivaldi – Mr George

Lucy-Rose

For her great acting and delivery of her lines in the leavers production rehearsals – we can't wait to see it.

Headteacher and
Deputy Headteacher
Mrs Pugh & Miss Broomfield

Gracie

For being so resilient on the trip to Whitby yesterday. Even though Gracie wasn't feeling well, she walked up the 199 steps to the abbey and enjoyed playing on the beach. Well done Gracie.
