

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

Connor

You have worked so hard this week! Great effort with your home learning and your castle that you made in DT was brilliant, great team work
Connor

Roald Dahl – Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Brooke

For fantastic effort with all her home learning this week. Well done Brooke, it was lovely to see all your pieces of work coming in.

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Stanley

In science we have been learning about the digestive system and even made poo! Stanley synergized well with his team and used some scientific vocabulary during the investigation.

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Charlie

Charlie has been fantastic in science recently, especially during our poo-making investigation. He took the lead and came to some great conclusions.

Year 5

Elgar – Mr Owen

Kaitlyn

For superb maths work (in small groups with the teacher) on fractions, and for her efforts and determination to complete all guided reading questions to an excellent standard.

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Bradley

For his fantastic persuasive letter about allowing all children to go to school in the Victorian times. Bradley used some fantastic year 5 writing features and persuasive techniques to create a very persuasive letter.

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Logan Lee

For writing a gripping myth, using many Year 6 features. Logan was then able to carefully proofread and edit his writing to make it even better- well done Logan!

Vivaldi - Mr George

Skyla

For writing an awesome Greek myth! I loved reading your action-packed myth; it had great humour and a twisting storyline - well done!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Kaitlin

For always trying her best in all aspects of school life. You arrive to school on time everyday ready to learn. We have heard all about your amazing homework project and can't wait to see it! Keep it up Kaitlin
