

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Shaw

Harry

For demonstrating excellent learning behaviours . You have really excelled in maths this week and completed some difficult problem solving. Great work!

Roald Dahl - Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Eesa

For setting a good example to others by being ready to learn in all lessons. You've been getting your book open and starting your tasks straight away. Well done Eesa, keep this up!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Noah

Well done for having such a good week Noah. You have tried really hard to make good choices with all aspects of school life.

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Ava

For persevering in maths this week. Ava has been trying really hard with round to the nearest 10, 100 and 1000 and I am super proud of her progress.

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood

Adam

For excellent knowledge during our computing lessons this week. Adam has really impressed me with his understanding and his ability to recall learning from previous lessons!

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Mryn

For her effort in English on Harvest Day. Mryn created some fantastic Haiku's which sounded brilliant! Well done Mryn.

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

George

For an excellent piece of Year 6 writing. George used lots of writing features, proofread his work carefully and created a spooky atmosphere for his ending of Room 13. Well done, George!

Vivaldi - Mr George

Jorgie

Jorgie was a wonderful role model at our tag rugby tournament this week. She earned the praise of other schools for her inspiring sportsmanship and performances on the field. We are proud to have you representing our school - well done!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Ben

For been a kind, caring and lovely friend when another child was having a bad morning. Well done Ben!
