

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Shaw

Ayaan

Ayaan has demonstrated excellent learning behaviours this week. He is so enthusiastic about all aspects of his learning, which is so wonderful to see.
Keep working hard Ayaan!

Roald Dahl - Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Ben

For doing some lovely independent writing yesterday. You had some lovely sentence ideas and thought carefully about your spelling, full stops and capital letters. Well done Ben!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Archie

Archie has designed and made a great mechanical car in our design and technology lesson. He made it completely independently and his finished product is fantastic. Well done Archie!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Charlie

For working extremely hard in all aspects of school. Charlie has had a brilliant week. I am super proud of the work he has produced particularly his war time letter from the point of view of a wife and mother. He wrote with emotion, humour and flare to create a really detailed letter explaining what it was like for women during WWI.

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood

Owen

For a fantastic effort during gymnastics this week. Owen is very enthusiastic and keen to show off his impressive flexibility! Well done Owen.

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Olly

For his fantastic effort to learn his lines on the day of our Ingleborough assembly (after being poorly) and being so confident in delivering them. Well done Olly!

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Henley

Well done to Henley for a fantastic week and a huge effort with all his work especially with your outstanding effort on TT Rockstars. Keep it up!

Vivaldi - Mr George

Connor

For designing and creating an eye-catching webpage in computing this week. You thought about the key features and applied them to your own webpage to ensure it was engaging. Well done.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Maiya

Well done to Maiya, we are so proud of your behaviour whilst we had visitors in school, you were confident and thought carefully about the questions you asked.
