

Year 3
Anne Fine

Lincs

You have really impressed me with your maths work this week. You have worked hard to understand the new concepts and always try your best. Well done keep working hard!

Roald Dahl

Harper- Daisy

For having a great attitude to learning and always trying her best even if she finds something difficult. Well done for persevering Harper-daisy, keep it up!

Year 4

JKR

Harper

Harper has been awarded the Well Done Award for showing incredible resilience and determination. Despite facing challenges, she worked through her difficulties with a positive attitude and never gave up. Her perseverance and commitment to overcoming obstacles are truly inspiring.

Michael Morpurgo

Tiffany

It was lovely to hear from Mum how you have been reading before bed every night. This is really helping you to make progress with your reading. Keep it up Tiffany!

Year 5

Elgar

Tyler

Well done for your amazing progress and effort with your Bikeability workshop, we are so proud of you!

Mozart

Musa

For beautiful singing in our Christmas carol concert practise. Musa sets a great example to all around him and shows a lot of Christmas spirit!

Year 6

Beethoven

Aroohi

For settling in to Beethoven Class so well. It is like Aroohi has always been there. She works so hard, joins in with all class discussion and is an excellent role model to her peers and younger pupils. Well done Aroohi!

Vivaldi

Joey

For his fantastic effort in maths this week. You have mastered how to divide fractions and worked extremely hard on learning how to simplify fractions. We have been so impressed by your mindset and attitude - well done.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Henry

For always being so polite to all the adults in school. Henry has always got a smile on his face, which is lovely to see every day when he greets us in the playground.
