

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

Oscar

You set a fantastic example to everyone in Anne Fine class Oscar! You always follow the school rules and try your best in everything you do.
Thank you!

Roald Dahl – Mr Birkinshaw

George

This week, George has worked extremely hard in all of his work. He has 'wowed' Mrs Lynch with his fantastic reading skills. George has believed in himself this week and should be really proud of himself. Well done George, keep it up!

Year 4

JKR - Mr Hogg

Quinn

For showing incredible bravery and determination by facing his fears and giving swimming a go. It takes real courage to try something that feels challenging, but Quinn stepped out of his comfort zone and gave it his very best effort. His positive attitude, perseverance, and willingness to keep trying are something to be extremely proud of.

Michael Morpurgo - Mrs Taylor

Muhammad

For his independent work during a comprehension task this week. You read each question carefully then used the picture book Tuesday to find the answers. You then impressed Mrs Tetley and Mrs Taylor by writing all the answers correctly, taking care with spelling too! Well done Amaar!

Year 5

Elgar – Mrs Watson

Sophie

For trying hard in everything she has done this week, especially in Maths. Even when faced with a challenge she has tackled it head on and asked for support after having a go first. As a result, she shone in my maths group on Thursday. Keep it up Sophie!

Mozart – Miss Bailes

Annabelle

For trying her best in all she does and for being a great friend. Annabelle has persevered in maths this week and has also been seen on the playground being kind and caring to her friends. Keep being you Annabelle.

Year 6

Beethoven – Miss Brow Leighton

Has had a fantastic start to the year! We have been incredibly impressed with his positive behaviour choices and proactive attitude towards his learning. He produced a wonderful non-chronological report all about Beethoven, which showcased a fantastic range of writing features. Well done- keep up the fantastic work!

Vivaldi – Mr George

Maya

For being extremely helpful around the classroom. You are always so positive towards your learning and so kind to your peers. Keep up the good work.

Headteacher and
Deputy Headteacher
Mrs Pugh & Miss Broomfield

Amelia

For being so brave this week and overcoming her worries about going swimming. We are really proud of you and have been so please do hear you have been enjoying your swimming lessons.
