

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

Samantha

You have worked really hard during our maths lessons this week. I have been really impressed with your resilience and determination. Keep working hard Samantha!

Roald Dahl – Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Joey

For working hard to improve his spelling this week. You have been using your phonics knowledge in your writing – keep this up now! Well done Joey.

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Vinnie

For his perseverance in maths. We have been doing some tricky maths recently and Vinnie has been resilient with it. He is now a maths superstar and even showed off our learning in the assembly.

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Nancy

For being a leader during our Anglo-Saxon theme day. Nancy took on the role of a project manager to create Anglo-Saxon structures and habitats.

Year 5

Elgar – Mr Owen

Yahya

Yahya for faultless behaviour and also two excellent pieces of English writing in the styles of a diary and also a brochure – both about the Victorians.

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Jenny

For her fantastic writing in English this week, Jenny has created a very convincing brochure to persuade children to come and work in a Victorian workhouse whilst also ensuring she has used our year 5 writing features. Well done Jenny, keep it up!

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Preston

For his excellent effort in our science lessons this week building a circuit. Preston was a great leader and led his team to success to be the first to make their buzzer work! Well done Preston!

Vivaldi - Mr George

Adam

You have shown incredible effort and determination in our assessments this week. We are so proud of your scores; it really shows how hard you have been working recently - well done!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Bonney-Jayne

For showing great enthusiasm during our skipping lesson this week! You really impressed us with your skills- Well done Bonney.
