

Year 3
Anne Fine

Dolly-May

You are such a fantastic member of Anne Fine class, you are proactive, kind and a great role model for others. Well done, Dolly-May!

Roald Dahl

Georgie

For having a really good week staying focussed on her learning. She has got on with independent tasks well and produced some great work this week. Well done Georgie!

Year 4

JKR

Leighton

For a great learning week. Leighton has had a good week and has made good behaviour choices. Well done for all your effort and keep it up!

Michael Morpurgo

Isabella

For always being willing to help during tidy-up time. You notice what needs doing and sort it out without being asked, even if it's not your mess! You set a good example to others with your commitment to keeping our classroom tidy. Thank you Isabella - it makes a big difference.

Year 5

Elgar

Kian

Kian has had an excellent week. He has been really focused in lessons and produced lots of pieces fantastic work. He has contributed well to all discussion in class and been proud of his achievements. Well done Kian - keep it up!

Mozart

Jack

Jack has tried really hard with his work this week and his spelling and phonics. He's also become a bit more proactive in asking other adults for help and he's been really helpful in the classroom. Well done Jack!

Year 6

Beethoven

Romeo

For a fantastic re-draft of his interview from Boy 87 this. Romeo was able to listen to the feedback and then edited his work appropriately to improve it.

Vivaldi

Archie

For your amazing writing in English this week! We have been writing an interview with a character from our book Boy 87 and your ideas and imagination have been brilliant!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Nayil

For giving a great answer in our myHappymind celebration assembly about using the habit of active listening and why it is an important habit!
