

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

Ollie

You have participated in some great class discussions this week, especially during our science lesson about light and dark.

Roald Dahl – Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Dallas

You have shown enthusiasm in all our lessons this week, sharing lots of ideas and answers with the class.

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Connor

For an exceptional fantasy story based on the book Beowulf. Connor's story was fantastic and he made the whole class feel sorry for his main character with his fantastic writing.

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Leon

For improving his writing by editing and proof reading. Leon has been really enthusiastic about story writing and has found a true love of reading in the Harry Potter books. It has been great to see how his love of reading has boosted his writing in school.

Year 5

Elgar – Mr Owen

Morgan

For an impressive, instant and accurate times tables knowledge during both maths lessons and also whilst playing 'Around The World' against others pupils – a great competitive edge Morgan!

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Scarlett

Scarlett really impressed me this week in English. Scarlett wrote an amazing setting description about Salvador rainforest. She worked hard to ensure she included all of our year 5 writing features and specific setting description features. Well done Scarlett, keep up the hard work!

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Summer-Rose

Summer has worked really hard this week dividing numbers by 2 digit numbers and converting fractions into decimals and percentages! Well done, Summer-Rose!

Vivaldi - Mr George

Simrah

You have progressed amazingly with your maths learning this week! You are now able to confidently divide by two-digit numbers and convert fractions to percentages. I am so proud of the effort you are putting in; it is certainly paying off!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Lola

For always trying her best in all aspects of school life. Lola, you are always full of enthusiasm and do everything with a smile on your face! Keep it up 😊
