

Reception

Elm - Mrs Laycock

Hoorain

Hoorain has been working incredibly hard in drawing club this last week! She has been trying so hard to segment the sounds in the short phrases in order to write them and has drawn some fantastically detailed pictures! Well done Hoorain 😊

Willow - Miss Dearden

James

This week, James has done some fantastic collaborative learning in the DT area with his friends. They built a model using the resources available. He listened carefully to the other children's ideas whilst also sharing his. Well done James!

Year 1

Kandinsky - Mr Birkinshaw

Tiara

Tiara has tried extremely hard during her maths lessons. She has been able to identify different 3D shapes and match them to their name. Tiara has also been able to tell the class whether it has a straight edge or a curved edge. Well done Tiara!

Matisse - Miss Arif

Neive

Neive has been working very hard during her daily phonics lessons and has shown perseverance to build her phonics skills. It's lovely to see her confidence grow. Well done Neive!

Year 2

Lowry - Mrs Normington

Shania

For working so hard with her reading. She always uses her phonics skills and this has enabled her to make super progress.
Keep up the great work Shania!

Van Gogh - Mrs Butters

Scarlett

This week Scarlett has produced amazing writing in English showing that she has listened and understood all of her new learning. We are so proud of you!
