

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

Louie

Louie has had a super year! He is much more proactive when it comes to independent tasks and has really enjoyed joining in with our street dance sessions this year. Your performance in the assembly was great!

Roald Dahl – Mrs Gawthorpe and Mrs Taylor

Frazer-Joe

For showing some very impressive dodgeball skills in our session with the PE coach yesterday! You were amazing and gave it your all – well done Frazer!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Stanley

For his excellent fantasy story, Stanley has used lots of Year 4 features in his fantasy story this week and has produced a fantastic piece of writing. Well done Stanley.

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Logan

For some excellent creative writing. Logan has been working on a story based upon Spiderwick and he has blown me away with his imagination and fabulous writing. Keep it up Logan!

Year 5

Elgar – Mr Gibbs

Ella-Rose

For fantastic effort and attitude towards her writing in English this week, helping Ella write an excellent setting description.

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Ishar

For her continued effort across the curriculum. Ishar always sets the right example for the rest of class and because of this she is great role model. Keep up the hard work Ishar, well done!

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

George

For challenging himself yesterday to go on the big rides at Flamingo Land.

Vivaldi - Mr George

Danyal

We were all so proud of Danyal's bravery and determination yesterday at Flamingo Land. He went on his first ever rollercoaster and absolutely loved it. Well done Danyal!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Charlie

For his sheer determination when riding a bike last week. He started the bikeability course with little experience and he persevered and can now ride a bike with more confidence. To top it off, he had a smile on his face the whole time!
