

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Dearden

Vinnie

For his consistently good manners and excellent attitude to his learning. He listens carefully and answers lots of questions. You have made huge progress so far this year and it is great to see your confidence!

Roald Dahl - Mrs Habbergham & Mrs Taylor
Ibrahim

For making a great effort to improve his spelling in his written pieces. He is thinking more carefully about the sounds in a word and what the words should look like. It's making a real difference to your work. Keep this up now Ibrahim!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent
Amber Rose

For her amazing effort with reading, Amber-Rose is always proactive with her reading and is one of the first to get her bookshelf book out without being asked. Great work Amber-Rose!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes
Zayaan

For a well designed biscuit in DT this week. Zayan designed, baked, decorated and evaluated his very own jubilee biscuit! The presentation of his DT book and of his tasty treat was lovely. Well done Zayan.

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood

Tahlia

For an outstanding performance during the netball festival. Not only was Tahlia a fantastic defender, but she also showed incredible sportsmanship cheering on the rest of her teammates and the other teams in the competition!

Mozart – Miss Brow

Simrah

For excellent sportsmanship during our netball tournament on Tuesday!

Year 6

Beethoven- Mrs White

Oscar

For having a much improve attitude towards all aspects of school life this week. In maths, he has worked hard using all of his mathematical knowledge to research and plan a family holiday and in our history lessons, he has showed great enthusiasm when learning about Queen Elizabeth II's life - all with a smile on his face and a positive attitude!

Vivaldi- Mr George

Kai

For being an inquisitive learner during our work on Queen Elizabeth II. He has ordered our monarchs and written a fantastic and compelling balanced argument, discussing whether a monarch should reign for as long as Queen Elizabeth has.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Richardson, Miss Broomfield and Mrs Pugh

Kaitlin

For having a such a positive attitude. Kaitlin represented Swain House at the year 5 Netball tournament and even though she broke her finger she still continued to smile and encourage those around her.
