

Year 3

Anne Fine

Max

You are such a fantastic leader of body language Max! You are always ready for learning or listening carefully for my next instruction. You are a great role model for the class.

Roald Dahl

Suraiya

For always having a positive attitude towards her learning and being a kind and caring classmate.

Year 4

JKR

Ajwa

For always doing the right thing even when the adults are not watching. Ajwa has also brought in some amazing holiday homework – we are learning all about the Romans.

Michael Morpurgo

Noah

For stepping in at last minute to take on extra lines in our class assembly, as somebody was absent. You learnt them so quickly and delivered them with confidence. Well done Noah!

Year 5

Elgar

Zina

For fantastic non chronological report in English about the Bradford City fire. You really are developing your own writing style and use some fantastic vocabulary choices. Well done!

Mozart

Lilly

For creating an amazing non chronological report for the Bradford City Fire. I could see that you put a lot of time, effort and concentration into it and it looks fantastic and it's very detailed!
Well done!

Year 6

Beethoven

Christopher

For a fantastic piece of descriptive writing about Dracula and Whitby Abbey. Christopher used lots of different writing techniques to scare the reader. Brilliant writing- well done!

Vivaldi

Olivia

For amazing effort and sportsmanship during our recent frisbee tournament. You showed incredible skills and teamwork and really stood out with your conduct when representing our school.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Lucy Rose

For being such a fantastic role model to the other children in school!
