

Year 3

Anne Fine

Aliza

You did a fantastic job in our class assembly yesterday, Aliza! You read your 'How to make Stone Age Clothing' instructions with confidence and accuracy.

You projected your voice so everyone could hear - well done!

Roald Dahl

Eliza

Eliza Holt for always trying her best with her learning even if she finds something tricky. She perseveres and always has a go! Well done Eliza, keep it up.

Year 4

JKR

Jensen

For being a great friend to those around him and setting a great example to the children in his class. Jensen always tries his best in his work and is kind and caring to those around him. Keep it up Jensen!

Michael Morpurgo

Ayla

For making a real effort to remember her hearing aid this week and for challenging herself in PE to try something out of her comfort zone. Well done, Ayla. I'm very proud of you.

Year 5

Elgar

Sienna

For a positive attitude and fantastic attitude towards all of her work and assessments this week. Sienna has shown great determination and effort and this has help her achieve so well. Keep it up!

Mozart

Blake

He had a rocky start to the week, but he managed to turn it around and he showed a lot of resilience and determination in his tests and his English this week.

Fantastic work Blake, keep it up!

Year 6

Beethoven

Alayna

For an outstanding piece of writing persuading the Kings of Ancient Greece to attend the first Olympic games. It was thoroughly enjoyable reading this piece of work- you should be really proud of yourself.

Vivaldi

Cayson

For creating a brilliant annotated drawing of a fairground ride in French. You included so much detail - it was really eye-catching!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Kennzie

For being so passionate about his job as a recycling monitor and for showing how much he cares about the environment in discussions with Mrs Pugh and Mr Kilner (our visitor to school last week).
