

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

Kai

You have demonstrated an excellent attitude to your learning this week Kai. I have been impressed with your perseverance when the learning challenges you.

Roald Dahl – Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Blake

For an amazing start to your assessments this week. Your attitude towards them and your concentration has been wonderful to see. Full marks in your arithmetic test! Keep this effort up next week, well done!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Alex

Alex is such a hard working person and is always so proactive in lessons. Alex always wants to challenge himself which is great! He has had an excellent start to assessment week as well, keep it up Alex!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Devin

For impressing the visitors we have had in school this week, Devin was extremely polite and engaged well with the life caravan and grow to school visitor this week. He shared his interesting knowledge of PSHEE and the First world war with the visitors who were blown away by his understanding of the topics we have studied. Keep up the good work Devin!

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood

Jessica

For your great art work this week, Jessica, you always have a positive attitude to your learning, keep it up!

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Kayla-Mae

For her fantastic piece of short writing in English this week, Kayla has really put herself in the shoes of a WWI survivor to create a moving short story. Keep it up Kayla!

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Ibrahim

For his fantastic music performance in our assembly yesterday. Well done Ibrahim!

Vivaldi - Mr George

David

I loved reading the opening to your story about Tommy this week! You thought of ways you can build suspense and keep the reader engaged. You have also managed to included all Year 6 features independently! We are really proud of your efforts - well done.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Aleeya

Well done to Aleeya for her amazing performance on the Glockenspiel in her class assembly, you were amazing!
