

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

Thierry

For an excellent attitude towards learning, always listening and trying his best, he also has beautiful handwriting, we are very proud of you
Thierry!

Roald Dahl – Mr Birkinshaw

Jannat

For projecting her voice loud and clear during her class assembly. She was extremely confident reading out her letter to Sir Titus Salt.
Well done Jannat!

Year 4

JKR – Mr Hogg

Adam

Adam has shown great perseverance in Maths and English this week. He worked hard using place value counters to add and subtract 4-digit numbers correctly and wrote an imaginative conversation between a Dragon Slayer and a baby Dragon. Well done, Adam!

Michael Morpurgo – Mrs Taylor

Lincoln

For contributing answers during all lessons this week. It's lovely to see you keen to join in and try your best. I have been very impressed with some of your super answers, well done!

Year 5

Elgar – Mrs Watson

Paryansh

Paryansh's hand is never down in class. He is always so enthusiastic and engaged. We love hearing him share his thoughtful idea. He has also shown a fantastic understanding of long division in our first week of learning the written method. Keep it up, Paryansh!

Mozart – Miss Bailes

Charlie

For showing great sportsmanship and for being a supportive classmate. Charlie is always a great team member in PE and cheers on his peers. He is also very kind and helpful to other children in PE lessons. Charlie kept a smile on his face even when his team was not winning. Keep being positive Charlie!

Year 6

Beethoven – Miss Brow

Aymie

For showing kindness and empathy to her friends during our residential and for giving her all on every activity.

Vivaldi – Mr George

Tommy

For being respectful and a fantastic representation of our school on our residential. You tried your best on all activities even when some of them seemed scary!

Headteacher and
Deputy Headteacher
Mrs Pugh & Miss Broomfield

Ruth

For having excellent answers in our assembly all about Recycle Week. Ruth knew all about the Great Pacific Garbage Patch and had some excellent answers. Well done Ruth!
