

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Shaw

Imarni

For demonstrating such a proactive attitude to your learning. You are always on task and you always try your hardest. Your written work in English this week has been fantastic. I am proud of you.

Roald Dahl - Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Abiha

For making a real effort to learn the song for our assembly off by heart. Well done Abiha, you have been singing beautifully and leading the rest of the class.

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Amaan

For always working hard in group discussions and team situations. Amaan is a great leader and whenever he is having debates or discussions he listens to others extremely well. Great work Amaan!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Minnie

For always making the right choices and for doing her best in all of her work. Minnie sets an excellent example to her class mates and should be really proud of how well she is doing in school.

Year 5

Elgar - Miss Wood

Abby

For producing an excellent diary entry based on the fib. Abby is already using Year 5 writing features and using humour to make her audience laugh!

Mozart - Miss Burnham

Izza

For her super hard work in Maths this week. Izza always puts first things first and is a very organised member of Mozart.

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Ayman

For completing a fantastic piece of Year 6 writing, using many writing features and selecting exciting vocabulary to grab the reader's attention. Well done, Ayman!

Vivaldi - Mr George

Hoor

We are so proud of the effort and determination you are showing with your learning. You have already achieved your first writing target and you're becoming a more confident mathematician - well done!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Leah

For always trying your best in everything you do! Leah, you always have a smile and a kind word for everyone you meet.
Keep it up Leah!
