

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Shaw

Jenni

Jenni has worked very hard this week on lots of different tasks, she has really impressed us with her determination and resilience.

Roald Dahl - Mrs Gawthorpe & Mrs Taylor

Elsie

For making enthusiastic contributions to all lessons. It has been lovely to see you raising your hand more to share your answers and ideas. Keep it up Elsie!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Isobel

Isobel has been working extremely hard in maths this week, she has been a superstar with her column addition and even started to regroup numbers. Great work Isobel!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Alex

For an excellent spooky story written in his busy bee book. Alex had some excellent ideas and created a suspenseful and thrilling story.

Year 5

Elgar - Miss Wood

Travis

For a fantastic dramatic performance of a soldier delivering a telegram to a family. Travis was able to role play from different perspectives and use his facial expressions to create an accurate still frame.

Mozart - Miss Burnham

Harvey

For his fantastic art work as part of his holiday homework about WWI in preparation for our new Bradford Remembers Theme.

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Gabriel

Gabriel has impressed me in many areas this week! He has independently written a letter in our English lesson based on our new text, War Horse. He has worked hard using base 10 equipment in maths and he has remembered many facts about the circulatory system! Well done Gabriel.

Vivaldi - Mr George

Logan

We were so proud of your performance in your first ever class assembly this week! You loudly and clearly delivered your lines and performed 'Happy' on a glockenspiel beautifully. Well done!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Connor

For persevering with his times tables. Well done Connor!
