BIKEABILITY

This week, children in Year 5 and 6 enjoyed Bikeability sessions. The sessions are designed to give the next generation of riders the skills and confidence to ride their bikes on today's roads.

SCHOLASTIC BOOK FAIR!

We would like to say thank you to everyone who bought books from our recent Book Fair. We have raised £97.29 worth of books for school. We look forward to reading our new books around school. In total, this year, we have raised £1304.59 in Scholastic Rewards to spend on books and resources.

YEAR 5 TRIP TO THE WILDLIFE PARK

Children in Year 5 enjoyed a trip to the West Yorkshire Wildlife Park this week. They enjoyed learning about the different animals in the park and the children enjoyed taking part in an animal workshop that involved holding some animals.

HORNSEA BEACH CLEAN UP

We would like to say a special well done to Burhanuddin and Sakina this week for their dedication to saving the environment. Sakina and Burhanuddin actively participated in a beach clean up at Hornsea Beach. The initiative was organized by the Dawoodi Bohras from Bradford, The children were presented with badges that bear the title "Beach Guardians." These badges serve as a testament to their dedication and commitment to preserving our environment.

READING PLANET REVIEWS!

Following the successful introduction of our new Key Stage 2 reading scheme, we would like to use our weekly newsletter to help promote and share some of your children's favourite stories that they have read. Each week, we will be sharing book reviews that have been written by your children. Hopefully these reviews will inspire our children to read one of the books when they choose their next one.

Absolutely Everything by Christopher Lloyd

'Absolutely Everything is a book by Christopher Lloyd, which contains nearly everything you'd ever want to know about the past. It includes lots of interesting facts about dinosaurs, religions and much more. My favourite part was the section telling us all about how Islam was made. I found out that even though Islam had been previously created, the Prophet Mohammed was the person first to discover it through visions and he went on to share it with others. I would recommend this book to people who love history because you can learn amazing things about our planet. It also has useful information that you can use in your everyday life.'

Sahil, Year 6

A Roman Banquet

I am reviewing A Roman Banquet. This is a fiction book. This book is all about the Romans and how people survived in Roman times. There are seven chapters, a glossary and an index. My favourite chapter is chapter 1, A Noisy Wake Up. It is so funny and it taught me about how Romans woke up. The leader woke them up and he was so bossy and grumpy! I really enjoyed reading this book.

Ocean. Year 3

RP NEWS

The children from the Resourced Provision have been up to lots of fun activities this week.

Last Friday, the RP had fun learning about and playing cricket. Mr Mohammad and Mr Hashmee taught the children how to play and they then got to practice batting and fielding. Afterwards, the children worked together to make fresh smoothies, washing and chopping the fruit themselves. They then got to choose which fruit combination they would like, to make their own smoothies. Yum!

SHARING YOUR NEWS!

We would like to say a huge well done to Olivia in Jacqueline Wilson class. Olivia won a medal for doing a full 3km at a junior warriors competition!

We would also like to say well done to Cooper in Lowry class. Cooper has been working very hard in rugby again. Last weekend, Cooper won top tackler of the week and won man of the match from the opposition. We are really proud of Cooper's achievements.

If you have any news about your child's achievements that you would like to share in our newsletter, please speak to your child's class teacher!

Transitions: how I can help my child?

Transitions, whether they are between year groups, key stages or schools, can be a stressful time for children as they become familiar with new routines, new adults, new friends and new surroundings. This is the case for all children and for children with special educational needs the changes can be even more unsettling.

As a parent or carer you can help!

- Start conversations with your child and find out how they feel about the transition.
- Ask them what they are looking forward to, what they will miss about their old school, class, teacher or teaching assistant.
- Encourage them to communicate any worries they may have - this could be verbally, through writing or drawing.
- Reassure them that their feelings are perfectly valid and lots of people feel nervous at different times in their lives. You could share a time when you have felt nervous and discuss the strategies you used to ease the worry.

Below are some different resources that you might like to use to support your child with transition.

NATIONAL ONLINE SAFETY

This week, our 'Wake Up Wednesday' guide from National Online Safety is about Rumble!

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about RUMBLE

AGE RESTRICTION
12+
on the App Store; 'Teen' on Google Play

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

A video-sharing platform designed as an alternative to YouTube, Rumble is the epitome of a 'slow burner'. In digital circles: it was initially launched in 2013, but it's only in the last two or three years that it's begun to gain serious traction. Much of Rumble's recent growth has stemmed from its association with Truth Social, the platform founded by former US President Donald Trump. Rumble's content frequently reflects some intense political viewpoints; this can often affect the way it approaches topics and has occasionally caused the platform to venture into controversial territory.

POLITICAL AFFILIATIONS

The company which developed Rumble is also responsible for hosting Truth Social, the often contentious news and social network founded by Donald Trump. Indeed, Rumble's content often reflects the ideas of one group of US voters, who have embraced it as an alternative to more mainstream social media. Many parents may feel that such an overtly political platform isn't suitable for young people.

PROVOCATIVE CONTENT

Rumble prides itself on championing free speech, with its CEO declaring the platform "immune to cancel culture". Many of Rumble's highest-profile content creators – such as Andrew Tate and Russell Brand – are well known for sharing opinions which are often described as extreme. While adults might be equipped to treat this content objectively, much of it may not be appropriate for a young audience.

INAPPROPRIATE MATERIAL

In very simple terms, Rumble works a little like YouTube but with far fewer censors and restrictions being applied to its content. If age-inappropriate material or potentially harmful misinformation is trending on the platform and being shared among more mature users, there's a distinct possibility that Rumble's algorithm may also recommend that content to a child.

CONTROVERSIAL FIGURES

Many of Rumble's best-known accounts are owned by individuals who have previously been banned from other social media platforms. There could, of course, be a variety of reasons behind this – but it almost certainly increases the chances of your child coming across content on Rumble which probably wouldn't be deemed acceptable on other similar platforms.

SENSITIVE TOPICS

In recent months, some prominent Rumble influencers have expressed uncompromising views on sensitive subjects such as gun control, abortion, LGBTQ issues and more. With many Rumble accounts tending to display a noticeable political bias, the concern would be that young people using the platform may not always be presented with an impartial perspective on these important and complex topics.

THE ALTERNATIVE VIEW

Advice for Parents & Carers

TALK ABOUT POLITICS

Rumble does have a team of moderators, but the nature of the platform means that some permitted content is likely to be controversial and highly subjective. That possibility might make many parents uncomfortable – but if your child does view (or hear about) something provocative on Rumble, it can still provide a useful opportunity to discuss politics at home in a safe, relaxed environment.

RESEARCH ALTERNATIVES

No video-sharing platform is totally free from potentially harmful content, of course – but the number of prominent account holders on Rumble whose output has previously been banned from similar services is certainly a cause for concern. If your child is becoming interested in influencer culture or politics specifically, you could perhaps research more family-friendly platforms together.

CHECK UP REGULARLY

Like any video-sharing platform, there's a chance that Rumble might suggest inappropriate content for your child. There may be an algorithm issue – or it could be that the recommendations are based on videos they've previously viewed. If your child uses Rumble, you might consider a chat with them about which accounts they follow and what type of content is suitable for their age.

DISCUSS IMPARTIALITY

Many prominent Rumble accounts wear their political leanings firmly on their sleeves. As a result, it can be tricky for impressionable young people to appreciate both sides of any given debate. If your child is old enough to use Rumble, you may feel that a discussion of some things they've seen might be prudent – if so, be prepared for some complex (and possibly lengthy) conversations!
