

Year 3
Anne Fine

Franklin

You have tried so hard with your handwriting recently. I am so proud of you and your effort and perseverance. Keep it up!

Roald Dahl

Ava

For her fantastic effort with her handwriting this week. Ava tried really hard to focus on forming her letters correctly this week. Well done and keep it up Ava!

Year 4

JKR

Zac

For being amazing all week. He has listened carefully to instructions and has made a huge effort in all his work. Zac was brilliant during maths. He was confident enough to put up his hand to answer some of the challenging questions about scales when counting in 250's. He finished all of his work correctly and then helped people on his table who were struggling with their work. Well done Zac

Michael Morpurgo

Scarlett

For a lovely piece of Remembrance poetry. I really enjoyed reading and hearing your poem Scarlett, well done!

Year 5

Elgar

Leighton

For a great attitude and effort at the start of this half term and in particular, in English where he has produced a very well written and thought provoking poem based on Flanders Field.

Mozart

Isabella

For building up her confidence during lessons. Isabella has really impressed me this week with her contributions to class discussions. She has also done some amazing independent work this week around our remembrance topic. Well done Isabella!

Year 6

Beethoven

Iylah

For perseverance in maths this week. Iylah has worked really hard to use scaling to find a missing factor or product.

Vivaldi

Brooke

All of the adults in Year 6 are so impressed with your attitude towards your learning since coming back after half-term. You have been proactive and worked hard with multiplying by 10, 100 and 1000 in maths.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Lilly

For being such a helpful Happiness Hero and finding out the rest of the teams Character Strengths and for making me such a lovely Character Strengths picture!
