

Year 3

Anne Fine

Lottie

For her excellent homework project that she completed during the holidays. Lottie made a model of a mummy in a sarcophagus for our new history learning about the Egyptians. Well done Lottie!

Roald Dahl

Layla

For being really brave and adapting to getting back into school so well after your operation. It isn't easy, yet you take each day with a lovely smile on your face! Also, thank you to the rest of Roald Dahl class for being so understanding and showing kind consideration for Layla in the classroom.

Year 4

JK Rowling

Frazer

For trying really hard on his handwriting this week. Frazer has taken great care with his presentation in English meaning his work is looking lovely. Keep up the good work Frazer.

J Wilson

Sienna

For always coming to school with a fantastic attitude, always being proactive in the classroom, and being a kind friend to others.

Year 5

Elgar

Logan

For fantastic effort and concentration during the bike ability course that Elgar did on Monday. Well done Logan!

Mozart

Charlie

For his fantastic work on rainforests this week. Charlie has done some great work in English as well as completing independent research on this topic. Keep up the hard work Charlie!

Year 6

Beethoven

Tia-Grace

For working really hard this week preparing for our final practice SATs week. Tia has made sure she has remembered as many facts as she can and that she applies this learning during her assessments. Well done Tia! You will do great!

Vivaldi

Ella-Rose

You have come back to school after our Easter break with a great attitude towards your learning. You are trying hard in all your lessons and producing some great learning! Well done!

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Nayil

For your wonderful contributions in our My Happy Mind Assembly. We really enjoyed listening to your questions Nayil!
