

Year 3

Anne Fine – Miss Shaw

Ayaan

For your enthusiasm and excellent answers during our VR workshop. You really impressed me with your contributions to the discussions – Great work Ayaan

Roald Dahl – Mrs Gawthorpe and Mrs Taylor

Brooke

For an amazing drawing of Boudicca in our history lesson yesterday. You really thought about the description we had read to create a lovely portrait sketch. Well done Brooke!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Vinnie

For having a fantastic attitude in all of our maths lessons. Vinnie is the first to have his hand up to answer all questions and as a result of his great attitude he is improving every day. Well done Vinnie

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Ava

For being really brave during our VR experience all about volcanoes. Ava persevered and did really well when using the VR headset. She spoke really well about what she saw and she really enjoyed seeing the volcanoes!

Year 5

Elgar – Mr Gibbs

Evie

For a fantastic attitude towards all of her learning. Always trying her very best at every piece of work she undertakes and being a supportive, caring and valued member of the class.

Mozart – Miss Burnham

Noah

For his hard work and perseverance in R.E. He wrote some great opinions about bible stories this week. Well done, Noah!

Year 6

Beethoven- Miss Brow

Millie

For working extremely hard in maths this week at our Swain House bakery. Millie has scaled up her recipe and calculated the cost of the ingredients she will need. Well done Millie!

Vivaldi - Mr George

Skyla

Skyla is always an amazing role model for the rest of the class. She has continued to focus on her learning all year long and puts in 100% effort in everything that she does. We are proud of how mature and responsible she has become – well done Skyla.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Pugh and Miss Broomfield

Charlie

For showing kindness towards his friends. Our VR visitor commented on how well mannered and polite you were to everyone.
