

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Dearden

Eesa

For his massive improvement in writing. I have been so impressed with your motivation along with your use of Year 3 writing features, choice of words and effort with your presentation. I think you are definitely ready for Year 4 Eesa!

Roald Dahl - Mrs Habbergham & Mrs Taylor

Leah

For her super speaking voice in our class assembly yesterday. You were so confident and clear and took on extra lines at the last minute - well done Leah!

Year 4

Jacqueline Wilson – Miss Broadbent

Ivy-Rose

Ivy knew answers to all of the questions in this weeks virtual reality experience! She has loved our 'extreme earth' theme and was able to showcase her learning to the special visitor!

JK Rowling – Miss Bailes

Bilal

For an excellent performance in our cricket tournament this week, Bilal made our school proud with his excellent throwing and catching skills.

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood

Archie

For a huge improvement with his effort in lessons. Archie has tried really hard to improve his handwriting this week and has improved his listening skills too. Keep up the hard work Archie!

Mozart – Miss Brow

Kaiden

During our Virtual Reality workshop, Kaiden was so enthusiastic! He knew the answers to all of the questions, which proves how much he has learnt this term! Well done Kaiden!

Year 6

Beethoven- Mrs White

Millie

For representing our school well at Flamingo Land. Millie was polite and smiley all day. She also showed great bravery going on Velocity - a really fast rollercoaster! Well done Millie.

Vivaldi - Mr George

Hayyan

Well done Hayyan for his great behaviour all day on the year 6 trip to Flamingo Land. Hayyan was a little nervous at first, but faced his fears and was soon enjoying the fast rides.

Headteacher and Deputy Headteacher

Mrs Richardson, Miss Broomfield and Mrs Pugh

Preston

Well done to Preston, you have come to school everyday and been on time, you have been proactive and ready to learn in every lesson. You have been such a great role model, keep up the good work Preston!
