

Year 3

Anne Fine - Miss Shaw

Samuel

For improved eye contact and his lovely interactions with adults in school.
Well done Samuel.

Roald Dahl - Mrs Oswald & Miss Broad

Hibba

For having a great year in Year 3. Hibba has grown in confidence and has made amazing progress with all her learning, in particular her handwriting when she was very proud to receive her golden pencil.

Year 4

JKR - Mr Hogg

Grace

For true grit and determination in Sports day and never giving up .
Also showing great sportsman ship throughout the morning . Well done Grace

Michael Morpurgo - Mrs Taylor

Ciara

For her super effort in your piece of descriptive writing this week. You chose some great words to describe Kensuke's cave and thought carefully about using all the senses when imagining you were inside.
Well done Ciara!

Year 5

Elgar – Miss Wood

Ilyana

For not letting her injury hold her back this week. Ilyana was a huge help during sports day keeping us on track with the scores. She has also still given 100% to her learning in class and worked really well with her partner to complete a wonderful history presentation. A great role model of resilience. Well done, Ilyana!

Mozart – Miss Bailes

Emelia

For being a model student and a kind friend. Emelia sets a great example to all children in our school. She tries her best in all she does, has great manners and always treats people with kindness. Keep being you Emelia.

Year 6

Beethoven - Miss Brow

Aala

For her incredible acting during our leavers' production rehearsals. You perform with great energy and portray your character perfectly.

Vivaldi - Mr George

Lilly

For massively stepping up with her part in our leavers' production. You say your lines so much louder and clearer and your acting is now brilliant - well done!

Headteacher and
Deputy Headteacher
Mrs Pugh & Miss Broomfield

Lincs

For having such a 'can do' attitude. Lincs always tried so hard and is a great role model for the rest of the class.
